Other Guidelines

- Submissions are reviewed and selected on the basis of quality of narrative, production value, nature of production, presentation and innovation.
- Multiple entries from the same participant are accepted, but each film must be accompanied by a separate entry fee.
- By submitting your project, at YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival take note that: You authorise us to use the parts of your project (including film/trailer/teaser/film poster/stills) for promotional purpose.
- Please select the right category while submitting to avoid disqualification.
- We may promote some/all of the projects by uploading their trailers/ teasers/ posters/production stills on our website and on our social media.
- After a project has been an Official Selection/Nomination, the submitter will be notified, and eventually the project will be listed on the festival website under Official Selections. The Official Selection status doesn't mean that your project will be screened at the festival. It means that your project has been appreciated by our judges of panel and you can use the festival logo on your poster.
- We do not accept - Amateur videos / Extremist or propaganda content from religious or political organizations / Projects involving politics / Films promoting political agenda / Pornography / Films with a poor production standard (bad sound, lack of subtitles for non-English films, poor resolution) etc.
- The YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival is hereby granted the rights to utilize an excerpt from any Project submitted for promotional purposes of the Film Festival.
- The individual or corporation submitting the project hereby warrants that it is authorized to commit the project for possible screening (private and/or public), and understands and accepts these requirements, rules and regulations.
- The festival reserves the right to refuse entries. The Jury can remove the project from the competition at any time without any explanation.
- You agree to indemnify and hold harmless the YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival, from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, and expenses (including but not limited to attorney's fees, and costs of the court) which may be incurred by reason of any claim involving copyright, trademark, credits, publicity, screening, and loss of or damage to the screening videos entered.

- All submitter understands and accept that if their project is accepted for presentation and screening at the film festival, they grant full and unrestricted permission for YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival to screen the film/video at times of the festival.

- YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival reserves the complete right to make changes in the program dates and times and to possibly not screen the video, despite its being selected for screening.

- The decisions of the jury will be taken by a simple majority of the members present and voting. The jury can evolve its own rules for assessment of the entries.

- No person in any way connected with the production or commercial exploitation of a competitive entry will be a member of the jury. All Members of the jury will refrain from releasing any articles or reviews to the press concerning the films submitted for their judgment, until after the jury's decisions have been formally announced at the closing function.

- Only nominated films will be screened at the festival.

- For films produced outside India, a certification by relevant Film Board of the country or attestation by the relevant Embassy in India would suffice. For International films, YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival will obtain Censorship Exemption from Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India, New Delhi.

- Preview material and promotional material will not be returned.

- The entry form must clearly mark the section entered for. Cover Letter should have all the details about your submission category, time, etc in clearly. YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival will not refund any fees if you fail to submit in the right category.

- In the case of co-productions, at least one of the producers/production companies must have the right to sanction the participation of the film in the competition section of the festival and the authority to receive an award, if any, is won.

- Only selected films will be intimated by email. No letters of non-acceptance will be sent. All lists of nominated films will be available on the website.

- Entry will be cancelled if film has violated copyright issues. Festival will not be responsible for any such films.

- Organizers will not pay air-freight or any other travel charges to any participant. Also, the organizers cannot reimburse any freight or other charges in foreign currency & INR too. Expenses will be taken care by participants only, which is related to their film.
- If selected for the festival the entrant must undertake to provide publicity clippings, posters, banners and other promotional material for the use of the festival.
- Submission of an entry gives the festival permission to have accepted work exhibited, photographed, locally telecast, and reproduced either in part or whole, for educational or festival purposes. Filmmakers can request in writing that their material not be used for such purposes after the festival.
- Submission materials should be sent by ordinary mail, Registered Post with Acknowledgement Due or courier. All postage costs and duties are to be borne by the sender. Festival organiser is not responsible for loss or damage of the submission's materials.
- The members of the Jury shall select the best film in each category. In case, the panel does not find any film to have the required levels of artistic merit; it may decide not to grant awards in one or more categories. In all instances, the panel's decisions are final and no appeal in this regard shall be entertained.
- Before submission, please do check back on the Submission Guidelines. Participation in the Festival implies acceptance of these Regulations.
- No film may be withdrawn from the festival programme after its selection.
- Submitted films may have screened at other festivals or theatres or online etc. Though we do premiere as well. If you are submitting an unreleased film, we may premiere it if it gets selected. All the nominated films will be screened at the festival during the event. We do not screen webseries keeping in mind their length. So only trailers of the webseries will be screened.
