

Submission Guidelines for Literature Awards

General Rules

- Please read these Rules & Terms carefully before you submit your project. By submitting your project into competition in the Yatha Katha International Film & Literature Festival, you expressly acknowledge and agree that you shall be bound by the terms of these rules & regulations.

- Submitting your work to the YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival is not a guarantee of selection. All the official selection, nominees and the winners will be listed on our website permanently. All the winning projects will receive a trophy, award or certificate.

- Please note that we do not offer application fee waivers. We treat every submitter equally.

- We accept all genres in any language, only with English subtitles. Projects in English language with English subtitles are appreciable for a possible screening during the Annual Public Event that will take place in Mumbai, India in November, 2025.

- After a project has been selected as a nomination, the submitter will be notified via FilmFreeway or via email. It means that you are now eligible for the awards and you can use our Official Laurels on your poster.

- Entry fees are non-refundable. Multiple entries are allowed for each submitter and each entry may be submitted to multiple categories with separate submission fees.

- A submitter's submission fee will not be reimbursed if they decide to withdraw their submission. All entry fees are non-refundable.

- The festival reserves the right to refuse entries. The Jury can remove the project from the competition at any time without any explanation.

- Festival will host book reviews, award ceremony, talks, panel discussions, poetry readings, performances, writing workshops, and interactive experiences.

- Jury's decision will be final and acceptable to all the participants.

- The Director of the festival has the power to waive any of the mentioned rules.

The Festival

- The 4th Edition of YathaKatha International Film & Literature Festival will take place between 06th to 09th November 2025, In Mumbai, Maharashtra, India.
